Course Description

Professionalism, awareness, and a confident mindset are required to prevent an escape during the transport of detainees and prisoners. Despite the inmates' security classification, all inmates have the potential to try to escape—endangering the officer, other correctional employees, and the community at-large. This class will cover policies and procedures to effectively transport prisoners in a secure, safe, and professional manner, with an emphasis on officer safety.

Course Objectives

Topics to be covered include:

- ✓ Responsibilities of staff in transporting detainees/prisoners outside of correctional facilities
- ✓ Security staff qualifications
- ✓ Three phases of prisoner transport: planning, preparation and transport
- ✓ Transport, departure, and arrival
- ✓ Staff to detainee/prisoner transport ratio
- ✓ Information packets for transport
- ✓ Travel routes/plans
- ✓ Positional asphyxia
- ✓ Contraband personal search
- ✓ Restraint procedures
