Course Description
Proper collection, handling, packaging and delivery of forensic evidence to the Crime Lab is critical. This is for personal safety and the proper protection the sometimes-fragile evidence while maintaining the total physical integrity of the evidence. Legal considerations regarding chain of custody and evidence integrity will be emphasized in this class.
Course Objectives
Upon completion of this class students will be able properly package the following types of evidence for submission to the Forensics Crime Lab: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Drug Chemistry ✓ Latent Finger Prints ✓ Forensic Biology/DNA ✓ Firearms ✓ Toolmarks ✓ Footwear ✓ Trace Chemistry ✓ Toxicology
Other Information
This class immediately follows a three-day Crime Scene Basics class. This stand-alone class would be appropriate for any police officer who might be responsible for collecting, packaging, or delivering evidence to the Illinois State Police Forensic Laboratory for analysis. This class very much compliments the previous days Crime Scene Basics class and those attending that class are strongly encouraged to attend this class.
Instructor
Debra Cooper is a 28-year veteran on the Illinois State Police Forensic Crime Laboratory system having worked in the Joliet, Carbondale and DuQuoin State Police facilities. She worked within several sections of the crime lab, including latent prints, firearms, drug chemistry, trace chemistry, toxicology, biology/DNA, and documents.
