★ RETIREMENT ANNOUNCEMENT ★

The Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board (Springfield) announces the upcoming retirement of region 15's law enforcement training Director Mike Norrington. After 49 years in the business of law enforcement, Mike will retire on June 30, 2017. He began his career in 1968 with the Southern Illinois University Police in Carbondale, serving 12 years. In 1980 he became the Chief of Police in Clinton, Illinois, serving 13 years. Mike has been the Director for the state's largest regional territory (27 Southern Illinois Counties) since 1993, being responsible for the delivery of in-service training to 155 law enforcement agencies consisting of about 1,560 officers.

There will be a retirement reception on Wednesday, June 28 from 11:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. in the atrium of the police training unit's new offices at the Dunn-Richmond Economic Development Center, 1740 Innovation Drive in Carbondale. Stop in for food and refreshments and to wish Mike the best in a well deserved retirement!

DIRECTIONS US Rt. 51 just south of SIU Arena: Turn E. on Pleasant Hill Rd then first drive N. at S.I.U. Research Park and back to Dunn-Richmond Center (red roof).
